THE GAFFER

Rob Dray

Good afternoon everyone and welcome back to the Cygnet Healthcare Stadium, as we welcome James Duncan and Michael Murray and their Chesham United team to Taunton for today's league fixture.

Today is another massive fixture as we come down to the business end of the season. Chesham are a great side and are in the hunt for the playoffs so they come here today looking for 3 important points, so we will have to be at our best if we want to keep up the pressure on those teams above us.

Last Saturday, here against Hayes & Yeading we took an excellent point from the game, but I thought we dominated large periods of the game and could have come away with all 3 points against, for many people were the team to beat this season.

Let's get the Cygnet rocking this afternoon, plenty of passion from the stands please.....Up The Peacocks!

THE AWAY END

Chesham United

Chesham United Football Club was formed in 1917 following the merger of Chesham Town FC (who were founder members of the Southern League in 1894 when still known as just Chesham FC) and Chesham Generals (who took their name from the General Baptist Church in Chesham Broadway).

Relative success in the following years paled into insignificance following the FA Amateur Cup run of 1967/68 when, against all the odds, little Chesham United went all the way from the Preliminary round to the final of the FA Amateur Cup, finally losing 1-0 to Leytonstone in front of a 54,000 Wembley crowd. At a time when the population of the town was just 18,000 people, the club sold 22,000 tickets for this game.

The club went into turmoil on May 3rd 1983 when the main stand burned down. A new stand was officially opened with the visit of a Watford side, managed by the late Graham Taylor, containing future Chesham United manager Luther Blissett in 1984.

The 1987/88 season marked the centenary of non-league football in the town of Chesham, an achievement commemorated with a match against a full-strength Arsenal side on 18th August 1987.

In 1991 the club won the Isthmian League Division One title and also reached the final of the inaugural Loctite Cup but lost to Bishops Cleeve on penalties. In October 1992 the club went to the very top of the Isthmian League after a famous win at Enfield and stayed ahead of the pack until the end of the season, being crowned Champions on the last day after a 4-0 win over Dulwich Hamlet.

That season the average gate was just short of 1,000. The season also saw the arrival of ex-Liverpool star Mark Lawrenson. However the season ended in disappointment when promotion to the Conference National was denied because the club could not afford the necessary ground improvements.

Since those days the club has been through many managers, including ex-England internationals Graham Roberts and Luther Blissett and literally hundreds of players, including a stint with Bruce Grobbelaar between the sticks.

In the early 2000s the club again had an eye on promotion to the Conference as Bob Dowie led a strong Chesham side to 6th in the Ryman Premier, possibly an under-achievement when considering the resources at his disposal.

The team that year included Wayne Andrews and Fitz Hall, both of whom went on to enjoy professional careers in the higher echelons of football. Two years later and the club were once again relegated back to Division One.

With re-structuring on the horizon, the 2003/04 season was all about finishing in the top six. After an indifferent start the team climbed up the table to eventually take 4th spot in the Ryman Division One (North) and earn a place in the Southern League Premier Division.

United's first year in the Southern League was certainly adventurous. At times they looked title contenders, then flirted with relegation and in the end were happy to finish in mid-table.

The following year the true price of years of over-achieving came to light. Nearly two decades of wealthy chairmen helping to fund the club was over and it was time for the Generals to stand on their own feet, a task that proved too much.

By February 2006 the club was truly on its knees. The front pages of local papers were highlighting the sorry plight of the club that had seen so much. A public meeting was called at the Town Hall to "Save Chesham United" - it was a last desperate throw of the dice.

Fortunately the sorry tale had a happy ending. A local businessman, Charles Manchester, read the stories, visited the Meadow, showed an interest and helped get the club back on its feet.

His intention was always to hand over the club to its supporters and he gradually brought more members of the Chesham United Supporters' Trust onto the main club board whilst other Trust members took on many of the day to day tasks of running the club.

Fittingly, after for years at the helm, he was able to stand down at the end of the 2009/10 season with promotion back to the Southern League Premier Division secured and the club back on a stable footing.

After good work by the Supporters' Trust, the club's financial position was improved following a takeover of the club by businessman Roger Payne in 2012. This takeover allowed Chesham to consistently challenge for promotion to Conference South in the following seasons.

Following relegation to the Southern League South & West Division in 2006, Chesham were transferred to the Midland Division after a single season.

In 2007/08 United finished 6th and missed out on the play-offs on goal difference, but in 2009 finished 5th, but lost in the play-off semi-finals to two late goals at Nuneaton Town having led 1-0 for much of the game.

In 2009/10 a fourth-place finish was enough to reach the play-offs again. A 1-0 victory away at Burnham set up a final against Slough Town with a crowd of 1,115 witnessing a 4-0 victory at the Meadow to secure promotion.

Consolidation in the Southern League Premier was the main aim for 2010/11, but Chesham United finished 6th in the league having been in the play-off race for much of the campaign. They achieved a 4th place finish in the 2011/12 season, losing in the play-off semi-finals to AFC Totton.

In the 2012/13 season Chesham reached the FA Trophy Second Round, whilst in the league were unbeaten in their last 17 games to finish 3rd, before losing to Hemel Hempstead Town in the play-offs.

Chesham were able to build on this in the 2013/14 season, pushing eventual champions Hemel Hempstead Town all the way in the title race, but eventually had to settle for a place in the play-offs.

After beating Stourbridge 2-1 at the Meadow in the play-off semi-final, Chesham lost 3-1 to St Albans City in front of a crowd of 2,960, the largest seen at the Meadow for many years.

However a number of players left the club in the following close season and a revamped squad finished in 11th position. The 2015/16 season saw history made as Chesham knocked a Football League team out of the FA Cup for the first time.

They defeated Bristol Rovers 1-0 on their own ground in the First Round proper. This led to a trip to Bradford City's Valley Parade ground in the Second Round, when two late goals gave the home team a flattering 4-0 win.

In 2016/17 Chesham again reached the FA Cup First Round proper, losing 2-1 to Peterborough United at London Road. This resulted in a fixture backlog which led to the club finishing 11th in the league for the third season running.

The 2017/18 season saw Jon Meakes take charge of the team after a decade as assistant to Andy Leese. A new-look squad took time to settle, but a strong run saw the team briefly threaten the play-off places before finishing a creditable eighth. However Meakes left the club in September 2018 after the club's first eight games yielded just one point. He was replaced by joint managers James Duncan and Michael Murray, who turned the team's fortunes around to such an extent that the club finished in a comfortable tenth position in 2019. The club continued to progress and were second in the table when the league season was cancelled in March 2020 due to the coronavirus pandemic.

PITCHING IN SOUTHERN LEAGUE, PREMIER SOUTH - SATURDAY 12th MARCH 2022

VENUE: THE CYGNET HEALTHCARE STADIUM - ATTENDANCE: 916

The Peacocks failed to claim maximum points at the Cygnet Health Care Stadium for only the third time this season when the leaders from West London returned home with a point. The result keeps both sides well in the hunt for the title although Town can consider themselves unfortunate on the balance of play not to have claimed victory after fighting back to draw level before the interval and then going on to have the better of the second half.

With centre half Jake Wannell unfortunately ruled out due to a hamstring injury and with three other key players missing for various reasons, the Peacocks made a slow start as the visitors bossed the early exchanges culminating in them taking the lead after just six minutes when Omar Rowe slipped the ball through to Francis Amartey and the United striker tucked his finish past Will Buse for his 20th League goal of the season.

Town responded with their first chance, a Lloyd James pass being tapped on by Ross Stearn to Toby Holmes whose lunging shot from the left was turned wide by Hayes keeper Ravan Constable. The ensuing corner from James found the head of Joe Guest but his header was safely gathered.

The hosts had to be constantly alert to the menace of the Hayes front runners and with a gusty wind affecting things, Town struggled to get the ball out of their territory at times during the first half which did nothing to reduce the pressure. Rowe sliced a shot wide after one attack but despite the Hayes threat, the Peacocks were seeing ample ball at the other end as they carved out several openings. Jared Lewington put Holmes away on the right, but his strike was over the bar, then Joe Budd burst through to find Stearn whose scuffed shot proved a routine stop for Constable.

Another Lewington effort was deflected for a corner from which Town so very nearly equalised just past the half hour, Jay Foulston's delivery reaching Nick Grimes at the far post and his header was blocked on the line, with successive follow-up attempts from Stearn and Holmes also meeting a wall of United players before the referee blew to stop proceedings for treatment to a Hayes player. Ben Frempah became the first player into the notebook for a foul on Holmes, presenting a free kick opportunity for the hosts which Stearn fired against the wall and with half time imminent it appeared as though the visitors would hold the advantage. Step forward Toby Holmes. A hoist down the left from Zac Smith should have been Frempah's to shield back to Constable who had advanced to the edge of the box, but Holmes nipped in to push the ball past them and slide home the leveller into an unguarded net. Elementary.

There was still time for Lewington to test Constable with a fierce strike which the Hayes keeper did well to clutch at his near post as Town ended the half with a flourish and they kept up the momentum when the second half began, an angled shot from Holmes going over the bar and then Lewington getting the better of Frempah but seeing his effort deflect for a corner. Two moments which would have potentially swung the game the Peacocks' way then went against them. After playing a 1-2 with Holmes, Stearn was clearly pushed over inside the box as he shaped to shoot but referee Barber decided otherwise, then a cross from the right was cleared as far as Guest whose blistering shot from 18 yards was fingertipped onto the bar by Constable and over.

Amartey made space to fire well over at the other end, but Hayes knew they were in a real battle as Town kept right in their faces. James' cross from the right was fumbled by Constable under pressure from Lewington but the Peacocks striker was unable to force home the loose ball as Constable recovered and managed to smother. Stearn was then brought down and this time something was awarded. However, the free kick from Ben Adelsbury deflected to Constable.

Hayes, who used all three substitutions in contrast to Town, began to up their game in the final quarter, but Buse was rarely troubled. Guest made an uncharacteristic slip when he miscontrolled a Moses Emmanuel cross, giving Amos Nasha a shooting chance which he fired high and wide while a free kick from a dangerous position after Emmanuel was fouled was curled just wide by Josh Payne. Rowe's shot from the edge of the area then took a slight deflection off Emmanuel and skimmed the outside of Buse's right-hand post before another pacy break saw Emmanuel tee up Kadell Daniel who rifled a strike narrowly wide of the target.

The last ten minutes saw both sides look to land the killer punch. Adelsbury scuffed a shot wide following a James free kick while Buse held a shot from Payne at the opposite end. The result keeps Town well in contention for a play-off place.

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

C O L U M N

We had a bit of a novelty for last Sunday's NLP – for the first time since 2019, we were able to feature a team from outside of the National League celebrating a title.

For those who missed it, Macclesfield FC – formed from the ashes of Macclesfield Town – have won the North West Counties League Premier Division title at the first time of asking and booked their place at Step 4 next season.

Over the coming weeks there will be plenty more promotion celebrations across the country and, of course, some less exuberant scenes that follow relegation.

Promotion and relegation is vital to the flow of the National League System and it's so good to have it back again. There were times this season where we perhaps feared we could be heading for a third disrupted campaign. But thankfully that hasn't materialised and we're now on the home straight.

Last summer there was some movement in the NLS with the elevation of clubs to help reshape the Pyramid – everyone will be glad to see it happen on the pitch this season.

It's been two years since the final round of games of 2019-20 before the country went into lockdown and the season was halted. Flicking back through that edition of The NLP, there is a strong sense everyone knew what was coming – albeit perhaps not to the extent it turned out to be. But among the worry and fears of Covid, there were still the words and pictures of teams striving to get over the line. All in vain. That won't be the case this time.

So Macc are up and there will be more soon. Banbury United and Bracknell Town to name two are inching closer to the finish line, as are Worthing in the Isthmian Premier.

Other promotion races look set to go down to the wire with a chunk of points still to play for deciding who will be crowned champions and who will reach the play-offs.

At the other end of the tables there is going to be some real intrigue with the Inter-Step play-offs that will see runners-up at Step 5 get a shot at promotion in one-off games against Step 4 strugglers.

It's a new element to add to the season and we'll all watch with interest as to how it pans out and how fans take to the format.

The last two years has seen a Non-League emerge from the pandemic with real credit. Crowds are booming at all levels, many people seem to have been awakened to this level of the game and the appetite for local football growing.

Non-League Day on Saturday, March 26 will be the perfect celebration of everything we love about Non-League football.

And it will also be another crucial weekend in the ebb and flow of a football season. It's great to have it all to look forward to again.
